Jeff Tetz
CEO & Partner, Results.

Jeff, CEO & Partner at Results, is passionate about helping leaders build great workplaces. For over a decade, working alongside a seasoned team of business advisors, he's been introducing mid-sized companies in Western Canada to the power of execution discipline and how transformative it can for a business.

Jeff brings a well-rounded perspective to leadership having spent time on the business side of professional sports in corporate positions in the National Hockey League and Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Oilers and Edmonton Football Club respectively and two decades working with high performance athletes in ice hockey.

He is also the host of a leadership webcast series produced by Results called Unleashed where he interviews some of the world's top leadership and business thinkers to help everyday leaders improve from their work and insights.

Away from work he is a self-proclaimed mountaineer, and he serves on the board of the Brain Care Centre and is the founder of Santa YEG, an organization focused on feeding Edmonton's homeless population during the winter months.
